

International Nano Technology Science Education Congress:

“INT-NTSE” Congress 15-16 NOVEMBER 2013

Dear Colleagues,

We would like to inform you that “International Nano Technology Science Education Congress: “INT-NTSE” Congress will take place in Istanbul (TURKEY) on 15-16 November 2013. The aim of the congress is to promote the sharing of good practices and transnational cooperation in the field of the application of Nano Technology and ICT in Science Education learning and training. The congress is also an excellent opportunity for the presentation of previous and current Science and ICT projects funded by the European Commission and by other sources.

We would like to invite you to share your experience and your papers with academicians, teachers and professionals.

The Call for Papers is addressed to teachers, prospective teachers, experts as well as to coordinators of educational projects and initiatives. We would like to encourage you to submit an abstract of a paper to present during the congress. The abstract should be written in English (250 - 500 words) and submitted online via congress web page below:

<http://www.ntse-nanotech.eu/congress/abstract-submission/>

All full paper presentations will be published in an online proceedings book of INT-NTSE Congress.

At “INT-NTSE Congress” there will be two presentation modalities: Oral and poster presentations (in-person).

The congress also offers the opportunity to participate as an exhibitor in booths. For further information about the exhibiting please check FEES OPTION 4 <http://www.ntse-nanotech.eu/int-ntse-congress.asp?p=registration-fees#op4>

Congress Language

The official languages of the Congress are English and Turkish. Proposals can be sent and be presented in either language. But all submission process will be done in English. Please, submit your proposal according to the following presentation category descriptions in paper guidelines.

If possible, we kindly ask you to spread the information through your network and/or publish the news on your web site.
